

THE WARCRY

News From Heard County High School

Volume 5, Issue 7

545 Main Street ~ Franklin, Ga. 30217

February 2010

Blake Alford and Trevor Spradlin have been dating for more than two years.

Emory Going to South Carolina St.

By Lacie Warren and Tyler Spradlin

Assistant Editor and Sports Editor

Santez Emory has been a part of the Heard County High School football program for the past four years. In that time, Emory has accumulated over 6,300 yards, rushing for 3,281 and passing for 2,285 yards, with a total of 60 touchdowns. He is a three time first team all-region player and has received the team MVP award three times. Emory led Heard County to a perfect regular season and a region championship his freshman year. So it was to no one's surprise that he was offered and accepted a football scholarship last week. The only question in the minds of Emory's fans was which school he would choose to play for. In the end he chose to go to South Carolina State.

Everyone is excited about Emory's decision, and when asked about it, principal Russell Sowell stated, "I'm extremely proud and excited for Santez and his family. I'm glad he has reached for this goal. I think he will really represent Heard County well now, and in the future. He is a fine young man, and his family will help keep him Continued on Pg. 3

Valentine's Day Celebrated at HHS

By Melissia Dollar
Staff Writer

It is that time of year again, and students all over the Heard County High School campus are talking about what they are getting their boyfriend or girlfriend for Valentine's Day. For many people it is a day to celebrate their relationship with their significant other. Some people, however, are alone on this day, but many choose to be with a group of friends or spend the day with family. One day during lunch, The Warcry staff asked Heard County High School students if they had a special Valentine's Day message they wanted to send out. These are those messages:

To: Zeke Bailey
From: Joanna Brown

I love you sweetheart,
Happy Valentine's Day!

To: My Friends
From: Toni Ball
I love you guys! My life would not work without you.

To: Orlando Burgos
From: Emily Powell
Happy Valentine's Day!

To: Chase McCormick
From: Hailey Brown
Continued on Pg. 6

1st row: Tim Barron, Benjamin Hyatt, Russell Sowell, Randall Curbow, Joel Rodgers
2nd Row: Linda Emory, Santez Emory, Tracey Emory, Clarissa Strickland (not pictured)

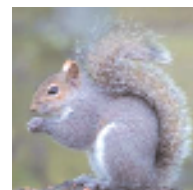

INSIDE
THIS ISSUE

Love Messages
Pages 1,6-12

Basketball
Page 4,5

Hunting Report
Page 15

Fashion Report
Page 18